

52. Eynsford's Embroidered Tablecloth.

This tablecloth was made by Eynsford women, perhaps from the Hospital Supply Depot, who embroidered a square with their name, the initials of the regiment their loved one served in, with a cross added if they died in the war. The squares were crocheted together, with a centrepiece of Kent's Invicta horse.